THURSDAY

Tours are planned for the Shriver House, a Civil War era home which tells the civilian side of the battle of Gettysburg followed by a tour of the Eisenhower family farm just outside Gettysburg. At the time of printing, it was uncertain whether or not the home would be open to tour. In the afternoon we will travel to the battlefield where a Park tour guide will join us for a two hour tour of the battlefield.

Auxiliary Programs

Then SHOW & TELL. Bring projects, recently found treasures, parts of your collections—or share personal stories about trips, challenges, victories, family. . . whatever is important to you. It’s a time to enjoy and get to know each other better! Friday afternoon 2:00 PM June Kucia will lead the discussion on the book “Lake News” written by Barbara Delinsky.

Friday evening, 7:30 p.m. Game Night. Join us for a fun evening playing all kinds of games. Bring your favorite game(s) to share with us. The more the merrier.

Saturday, 11:30 a.m. There will be a luncheon for women and men on Saturday, followed by a program “Women of Gettysburg” presented by Patty Hawthorn. A short business meeting will be held afterward.
